Turin, March 11. N. S.

PRince Charles of Vaudemont has ſent his Equipage hence to the Secchia, being to command in chief the Imperial Forces on that ſide, and his Highneſs, with General Viſconti, and ſeveral other Officers, will be going thither to morrow. The Bavarian Miniſter left this Place laſt week; and the Count de Bonneval, our Duke's Miniſter at that Elector's Court, is ſhortly expected here. The Spaniſh Ambaſſador, who has been confined in his own Houſe ever ſince the breaking out of the War between the Two Crowns and this State, has now obtained the ſame Liberty of going any where within this Town, as is allowed at Coni to Monſieur Phillippeaux, the French Ambaſſador. The Marquis de Prie will be going hence in few days on his Embaſſy to the Imperial Court. Our Advices from France ſay, that the Camiſars encreaſe daily in number in the Vivaretz, and are abſolute Maſters of the open Country: Some Letters ſay, they are 4000 ſtrong on that ſide, beſides thoſe in Sevennes. The French have fitted out 12 Men of War at Toulon, the leaſt 60 Guns, and have 12 more ready cleaned in that Port, which want only their Complement of Men. They give out, that they expect as many more to join them from Marſeilles; which Preparations are ſuppoſed to be deſigned for covering their intended Siege of Nice. In the mean time all poſſible Precautions are taking on our ſide for the Defence of that Place.

Zurich, March 19. The Swiſs Cantons begin to grow impatient at the Delays uſed by the French Court in returning an Anſwer to their late Demands of a Neutrality for the Dutchy of Savoy, made at their late Diet at Soleure. In the mean time the French Ambaſſador has writ a Letter to this Canton, to aſſure them from the Elector of Bavaria, That the Troops of that Prince ſhould not attempt any thing againſt the Towns which are ſituate upon the Lake of Conſtance, or upon the Rhine, from Baſil to Bregentz, deſiring this Canton to communicate this Letter to the reſt of the Helvetick Body; upon which they have ordered here a Letter of Thanks to be writ to him. Monſieur de Mellarede, the Duke of Savoy's Envoy, has ſettled his Capitulation for Levies with moſt of the Catholick Cantons; that of Lucern unanimouſly agreed thereto the 10th Inſtant; and there is no doubt but Friburg will do the ſame: The leſſer Cantons had before agreed to the Envoy's Propoſals; ſo that there being now a Majority of the Cantons, who have given their Conſent, the Levies are begun in the common Bayliwicks for the Duke's Service with very good Succeſs. Several French Regiments are drawn from Savoy, to be employed againſt the Camiſars. On the 7th Inſtant the Swiſs who are in Garriſon in Montmeillan made a Sally upon a French Regiment that made part of the Blockade of that place, killed 300 of them upon the ſpot, and took many Priſoners: Moſt of the Officers of that Regiment were at that time diverting themſelves at Chamberry. They are fitting 12 Capital Ships of War at Thoulon, and the Intendant Vauvroy is come down thither from the French Court, with Orders for the fitting out of ſeveral more. The Count de Toulouſe is to go on board, and the Marſhal d'Eſtrees is to command under him; but their Deſign is kept ſecret. The Letters from Italy mention a ſmart Rencounter about the Novareſe between the Imperialiſts and the French, and that the Advantage remained on the ſide of the Germans; but we muſt expect a more certain and particular Account before we can know what Credit is to be given to this News. The French in the Lower Lombardy make very great Preparations for a Siege, which the Grand Prior is to undertake, and is ſaid to be that of Mirandola. The Count de Trautſmanſdorf, who commands the Imperial Forces in thoſe Parts, ſuſpecting the French had ſome Correſpondence in that Place, has changed the Garriſon, and provided it with all Neceſſaries for its Defence. The Marſhal de Tallard has been ſome time at Strasbourg; and great Preparations are making there, which it is believed are deſigned for ſome Enterpriſe on the Rhine.

Vienna, March 15. Monſieur Bruininx, Envoy from the States General, returned hither this day from Schinta, where he had been to confer with Berzeni, one of the chief of the Malecontents of Hungary, in order to an Accommodation. The Malecontents have lately poſſeſſed themſelves of the Cathies of Mongatz and Ungwar. The Two Princes James and Conſtantine Sobieski continue under Confinement in the Caſtle of Leipſig: The King of Poland offers to deliver them up into the Emperor's Hands, to be kept in any part of his Territories, provided his Imperial Majeſty will anſwer that they ſhall not get away, nor carry on any Intreagues againſt his Perſon and Government.

Hague, March 25. Yeſterday my Lord Cutts returned hither from reviewing all Her Majeſty's Engliſh Forces; having ſent a Detachment of between 3 and 4000 Foot, under the Command of Brigadier Ferguſen, up the Maeſe. The Engliſh Forces were never known to be ſo healthful as they are at this time.

Hague, March 28. N. S. On the 24th Inſtant the States of the Province of Holland and Weſtfriſeland were extraordinarily aſſembled, and came to a final Reſolution in the Matter relating to the Nomination of the General Officers who are to command the Forces of this State the next Campaign. They agreed to the Expedient propoſed for contenting the Provinces of Eaſtfriſeland and Groningen, viz. that the young Prince of Naſſau, their Stadhoulder, ſhould be now declared a General of Foot, but ſhould not enter upon that Command till he be of Age; and as for the Lieutenants General, the Majors General, Marſhals de Camp, and Brigadiers, they agreed to the Liſt propoſed by the States General to the ſeveral Provinces for their Approbation. This Reſolution of the States of Holland was ſignified the next day to the States General, and Four Provinces more have ſince agreed to it; ſo that there wants only the Conſent of thoſe of Zeland and Overyſſel; when that is procured, then a perfect Liſt of the General Officers will be publiſhed: In the mean time we are told that the Velt Marſhal and Generals are as follows.

Velt-Marſhal.
Monſieur d'Auverquerque.

Generals of Foot.	Of Horſe.
Monſieur Slangenberg,	Monſieur Obdam,
The Count de Noyelles,	The Count de Tilly.
The Prince of Naſſau-Friſeland.

Two days ago there came a Reſolution of the States of Zeland, whereby they recall Monſieur Odyke from his Employment of one of their Deputies in the Aſſembly of the States General, who is thereupon gone to Utrecht. The Envoy of Denmark has notified to the States, That a Dutch Eaſt-India Ship has lately been ſeized in Norway, by way of Repriſal for ſeveral Daniſh Ships taken by the Zeland Capers, and will not be releaſed till Reſtitution be made by the Zelanders of thoſe Daniſh Ships, which are about 20 in number. The other two Dutch Eaſt-India Ships which put into Norway in her Company are daily expected at Amſterdam. The States General have concluded a Treaty with the Duke of Wirtemberg for ſome of his Forces, which they take into their Service to ſupply the room of thoſe they have ſent to Portugal. The Regiment of Horſe Guards marched yeſterday towards the Maeſe, and will be followed next week by the Foot Guards. Another Regiment of Horſe is arrived here in the room of the former; and in the place of the latter another Regiment of Foot is expected here. It is ſaid the Marſhal de Villeroy is come to Namur; but hitherto he has contented himſelf with keeping us in alarm by the Motions of his Forces, without any fixed Deſign that can be yet diſcovered.

Briſtol, March 18. Yeſterday came in here Her Majeſty's Ship the Arundel, and ſeveral Tranſport Ships with a Regiment of Foot on board from Ireland, which is ſince landed here.

Plimouth, March 19. Yeſterday came in here Her Majeſty's Ships the Southampton and Lizard, and the Hazardous, a Man of War, taken ſome time ago from the French, together with ſeveral homeward bound Merchant Ships, and 5 or 6 Tin Ships from Falmouth.
